VIRGIN ISLANDS BOARD OF EDUCATION
CELEBRATES MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. DAY

The Virgin Islands Board of Education (VIBE) joins the Virgin Islands community in celebrating Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr. King was an influential civil rights leader who fought for racial equality, voting rights and dignity for people of color. “Intelligence and character are the goals of true education,” Chairperson Kyza A. Callwood stated. The Board asks everyone to do and say more about the quality and delivery of education for our students. On the upcoming holiday commemorating Dr. King’s legacy and impactful contributions towards bringing a change we can believe in, begin your day by reminding our children of their heritage, culture, and history of greatness. Complete activities that provide acts of service to the family, neighborhood, or territory. The VIBE and its members “Dream” of every child being great, having “a heart full of grace and a soul generated by love.”
